Indomitable Women

Our 30th annual Authors Luncheon fundraiser, this year carries the theme, "Indomitable Women." This event helps us send 7th grade girls to Tech Trek STEM summer camp and provides for scholarships for women continuing their education at Golden West College.

Our speakers this year, Susan Straight and Lian Dolan, both well illustrate this theme in both their own lives and in their works. Reservations must be made no later than April 1. A reservation form is attached to this newsletter.

Books by both authors can be purchased at or preordered from Book Carnival. This indie bookstore is located at 348 S. Tustin Street, Orange. The store is open Wednesday through Saturday, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Phone: (714) 538-3210 or (800) 963-3266. Preorder books here:

Presidents' Message

“April hath put a spirit of youth in everything.” (William Shakespeare)

“April is the kindest month, April gets you out of your head and into the garden.”
(William Shakespeare)

Dear Members:

Happy St. Patrick's Day!

The Authors Luncheon is our Branch's most significant fundraiser. This year we hope to support both Tech Trek (STEM camp) and Golden West scholarships for women returning to college to better their lives.

Our theme this year is “Indomitable Women”. We have two special authors, Lian Dolan and Susan Straight, a silent auction, a general raffle and a Polly's Pie raffle. The Authors Luncheon is April 15; reservations must be received by April 1. Please come and bring your friends!

See you there!

Sincerely,

Donna Kratter and Getta Wolff, co-presidents

Heads Up! May Meeting

The speaker for our May Meeting is Edward Hume, a Pulitzer prize winning journalist and non-fiction writer. He will discuss his latest book, The Forever Witness: How DNA and Genealogy Solved a Cold Case. I could not stop reading this riveting true crime story or Mr. Hume's explanation of how the combination of DNA and genealogy has revolutionized solving violent crimes (current and cold) and identification of Jane and John Does.

QUEST

Thursday, April 6 9 a.m.

Flower Fields at Carlsbad Ranch

Our April Quest will finally get us outside to enjoy, hopefully, sunshine and warmth. We plan to visit the Flower Fields. The spectacular bloom has been a treat for the past sixty years. If you are interested in attending, please let us know by March 20th. Tickets for seniors are $23.81—strange price, but there is a service fee involved. All of the specifics will be sent to those who are interested.

We will be leaving Hof's Hut at 9 a.m., going through the flower fields at 10:30 a.m., having lunch afterwards, and heading home.

We are looking forward to having a great group joining us. Everything has been terrific so far. Thanks, ladies, for supporting our endeavors.

HAPPY HIKERS

April 6

10 a.m.

El Dorado Park, Long Beach

For April we will be going to the beautiful El Dorado Regional Park in Long Beach. The site has 370 acres of woods, lakes, meadows and easy level walking trails. We will meet at 10:00 a.m. at the Gate 2 parking lot off East Spring Street in Long Beach. There is a parking fee of $6 so you might want to car pool. After the hike we will have lunch at Shenandoah at the Arbor on Los Alamitos Blvd. Please let me know if you can come at ralphkaj@aol.com. Thanks and see you then! Ann

*These are our 50 year members.

Membership News

National has a new membership campaign called, "Shape the future." With this campaign we can offer 50% off of national dues when prospective members join AAUW at an event or meeting. We can also earn one free national membership for every two new members we recruit!

Remember, national dues are the largest part of our dues package, so these new members joining at an event will pay $74.00 instead of $110.00. The catch is: they must join AT the meeting or event (no, "Let me think about it") and they must be either entirely new to AAUW or someone who rejoins after two or more years of lapsed membership. We will start bringing membership applications to all our meetings and to the Authors Luncheon, so please bring your friends and TALK IT UP!

Basket Party

April 10 @ 10am Sue Mc Dannel's Home
4356 Candleberry Ave., Seal Beach

All are invited to help assemble, wrap, and prepare bid sheets for our silent auction. We hope to see you there!

HELP WANTED

Co-V.P. Funds

There is already a group willing to help with the Authors Luncheon.

SUSAN STRAIGHT

A native Californian, born in Riverside, where she still lives with her family, Susan Straight currently serves as Distinguished Professor of Writing at the University of California, Riverside. Mecca, her most recent novel, was a finalist for the Kirkus Prize, named a best book of the year by NPR and Codeswitch, longlisted for the Carnegie Medal for Excellence, and made both the Los Angeles Times and Washington Post's Best Ten Books for 2022. Her memoir, In the Country of Women, describes how strong women pass down their strength down to their daughters. It was a 2019 national bestseller, and again a best book of the year by NPR and Codeswitch. She has published eight previous novels, including Highwire Moon and A Million Nightingales, both again bestsellers. Her numerous awards include both an Edgar for Best Mystery Story and a Guggenheim Fellowship. Her work has been translated into nearly a dozen languages.

LIAN DOLAN

Though she grew up in Fairfield, CT, with her four older sisters, Lian Dolan, whose first name is pronounced like "Liam" with an "n," has long found a home in Pasadena. A graduate of Pomona College, she shares her home with her husband, two sons and a big German shepherd.

She has written four bestselling novels, including Lost and Found in Paris, and her next, The Marriage Sabbatical, will appear in January 2024. Her Satellite Sisters UnCommon Senses and You're the Best: A Celebration of Friendship honors female relationships by demonstrating how sisters support one another. She is a host and producer of Satellite Sisters, a talk show she created with her sisters in 2001. An independent podcaster since 2009, Satellite Sisters produces a weekly show and garners over 3.5 million downloads a year. Additionally, she has written regular humor columns for O, The Oprah Magazine, Working Mother Magazine, and Pasadena Magazine.
