“February is short and sweet.” (Charmaine J. Forde)

“Without Valentine’s Day, February would be, well, January”.(Jim Gaffigan)

Dear Members:

Happy New Year!

At our January Meeting we will receive an update on the activities of Aquarium of the Pacific. The Radiant Church (15155 Springdale Street, South of Bolsa) is a new venue for our Branch; please let us know your experience.

In March we will hear from the Bolsa Chica Land Trust.

Please come to the Authors Luncheon Planning Meeting on January 27th. We need your mental and physical efforts now.

How about a New Year’s resolution to consider joining our 2023/2024 Board? The world is getting back to normal.

Sincerely,

QUEST

Monday, February 27 noon

Norton Simon Museum

The Norton Simon Museum is known as one of the most impressive private art collections in the world. Over 30 years, Norton Simon collected European art from the Renaissance to the 20th century. This wonderful museum is a hidden gem in Pasadena. Our private tour will be on Monday, February 27th at 12 noon. We plan to have an early lunch in Pasadena first, so we can leave before rush hour. We need to pay ahead of time, so we will need a head count by February 1st. The payment changes, depending on attendance. Because I will be out of the country during February, we will not plan on any late sign-ups. Please let us know as soon as possible if you can join us on February 27th.

Note on a favorite read

Lessons in Chemistry by Bonnie Garmus

Bill got this for me as a Christmas gift, and I was unaware of its luster. Now it's a best seller and with good reason.

It fits very well with AAUW's objectives and is a very fun read!

HAPPY HIKERS

February 2

10 a.m.

Fairview Park 2501 Placentia Ave. Costa Mesa

Because we were rained out in January, I have re-scheduled our Fairview Park hike.

Fairview Park is the city's largest park with a total of 208 acres. It has two Nationally Registered Cultural Resource Historic Sites and 5 distinct habitat ecosystems. We will be hiking along the Santa Ana River Trail and through the adjacent Talbert Regional Park. It is an easy walk with chances to see lots of plant and animal species. We will meet at the parking lot at 10:00a.m. Please e-mail me at ralphkaj@aol.com if you can come.
